6.30 Absentee ballot is only allowed if a registered member eligible to vote has a genuine and reasonable excuse for not being able to vote on Election Day. The reason should be given in writing / faxed or emailed to the Election Committee. The election committee has the discretion of judging the validity of the absentee voter and allowing the voter to cast the ballot. In case of sickness or being out of town the ballot may be faxed, mailed or emailed to the election committee member and sent back addressed to any Election Committee member. Voting members shall not authorize proxy vote to any other member, including election committee member, BT, EC or HASB to cast the ballot on their behalf.

6.31 Voting member who is eligible to vote must bring at least one form of picture identification (e.g. driving license, state ID, School ID, etc.) on Election Day.

6.32 The election results, verified, announced, and posted by the Election Committee shall be final. The Election Committee shall cease to exist after the announcement of election results.

6.33 In case of a dispute regarding election result, the incumbent BT and EC shall resolve the issue within two (2) weeks period.

6.34 The BT and EC shall maintain all election ballots (including HASB) and records for a period of two (2) years.

6.35 If the election is postponed, due to unforeseeable conditions (inclement weather, community emergency, unforeseeable events) that are beyond the control of the Election Committee, then it shall be postponed for the next week. If circumstances warrant that the election be postponed once again, then the election shall be held the week after. Under no condition shall the elections be postponed for more than four (4) weeks from its original date.

6.36 In case of a vacancy for any position in the BT, EC or HASB: If there is less than six (6) months left for the annual elections, the respective elected body with mushawara

(consensus) among themselves shall decide whether to refill the position or not. The position may stay vacant and shall be filled during the annual election. If there are more than six (6) months left for the annual elections then vacant position shall be filled “temporarily” by appointing a voting member through mushawara (consensus) from the respective body. The vacant position must then be filled during the annual election.

6.37 If an ICLR member who is registered and eligible to vote has been disciplined in writing by a majority of the members of the BT, EC or HASB, then that member shall not be eligible to run for a position in elections or be a member of the BT, EC or HASB or any committee or sub-committee for a one-year period. The one-year period starts from the day of the disciplinary action.

6.38 If any elected member of ICLR (BT, EC or HASB) is convicted of a felony or any other crime, then that member shall not be eligible to run or hold a position and shall have to resign immediately and shall be automatically terminated from the elected position.

8.1.8 If any member informs the BT, EC or HASB members that the above requirements were not met, the BT shall review the entire petition. The petition or motion may become invalid. The BT shall make the final decision within four (4) weeks about the validity of the petition or motion.

8.1.9 All ICLR members shall be responsible for the actions of their children. They must teach their children the Islamic etiquettes and encourage them to pray with/beside them at prayer times and minimize disturbances especially during prayers.

8.1.10 No member(s) of the general body shall give an interview with the media representing the views of ICLR without prior permission from the BT, EC or HASB. If any such interview is given, then the BT reserves the right to deny that as the official response or stand of ICLR on the issue(s). The member(s) may also face disciplinary action. (Article 8.2.7)

8.2 Majis-e-Shura (Board of Trustees, Executive Committee and The Huda Academy School Board)

General Rules

8.2.1 The Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC and HASB) members shall make all decisions by mushawara (consensus), however a majority vote in the BT, EC or HASB shall always prevail. The EC or HASB may request a combined meeting with the BT, if majority of members feel that in the interest of time a decision may be reached quickly, by mushawara (consensus) e.g. amendments or changes in constitution, development of by-laws, contracts etc. The majority vote in a combined meeting shall always prevail.

8.2.2 No member of the Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC or HASB) who disagrees or has a different opinion has the right to unilaterally affect the decision of the majority. The member(s) may face disciplinary actions by the other majority members including removal from the Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC or HASB). No elected members shall coerce or influence the Imam to make decision(s) contrary to the ones set forth in this constitution.

8.2.3 All Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC and HASB) members are responsible for maintaining records and documentations of ICLR including but not limited to financial records, deeds of trust, leases and marriage of registered members. They may however designate a person responsible amongst themselves.

8.2.4 The succeeding Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC or HASB) members shall implement the written commitments of the previous BT, EC or HASB members.

8.2.5 Any (Majis-e-Shura) BT, EC or HASB member who is absent without prior notification for three (3) consecutive meetings without a valid reason, shall be considered for removal by the elected body. If majority of the members in the respective body agree then the concerned member shall cease to be a member of that elected body and shall lose the office. The vacancy created shall be filled in accordance with rules set in ARTICLE 6.31.

8.2.6 The (Majis-e-Shura) BT, EC and HASB members shall be authorized to obtain bids, execute and award contracts. Any contract work over $5,000 shall require at least three (3) bids. If there is only one bid then that contract or award shall be given to that party by the respective elected body. The respective elected body reserves the right to reject all bids. However if a project is being done without cost to ICLR, then bids or contract do not apply. (Also see Articles 4.4- 4.6)

8.2.7 If any ICLR member(s) found to be violating the Islamic code of conduct or behavior, like disturbing the peace and harmony of ICLR, insulting ICLR authorities, abusing ICLR assets; the Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC and HASB), has the right to disapprove, deny, expel the member(s) from ICLR or can have restraining order against the member(s). This decision shall be made by mushawara (consensus) by a majority of elected members in the respective elected body and based on sound judgment to preserve the aim, integrity and security of ICLR.

8.2.8 The Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC and HASB) members shall have the right to determine the length of expulsion of member(s) and whether the membership should be reinstated.

8.2.9 Expelled member(s) shall not be eligible to be nominated for Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC, and HASB) or any other committee position for a period of three (3) years.

8.2.10 The expelled member has the right to appeal to the BT in writing and the situation shall be discussed in a special meeting called by the relevant body and the BT within two (2) weeks. The decision of the majority of the members shall be final.

8.2.11 The voting members of the General Body members of ICLR may also discuss and recommend in writing to the Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC and HASB) members, further course of action or provide alternatives regarding the expelled member. The Majis-e-Shura (BT, EC, HASB) reserve the right to follow or reject these recommendations keeping the interests and security of ICLR in mind.

ARTICLE 9

Selection, Role, Responsibilities and Duties of Imam and other ICLR employees

9.1 The office of the Imam is to lead the community in religious and spiritual affairs. All religious activities and programs in the prayer hall shall be carried out according to Quran and Sunnah.

9.2 Imam shall possess strong knowledge of Quran and Sunnah. He shall preferably be a Hafiz, fluent in Arabic and English and shall provide two written references for any previous experience and training.

9.3 The Imam shall perform all religious rituals, ceremonies and duties including but not limited to leading the five daily prayers, Jummah (Friday) prayer, Taraweeh prayers, Eid prayers, fund raising, funeral prayers, marriages and any other duties pertinent to the office of the Imam or designated by the EC.

9.4 The BT and EC shall appoint an "Imam" search committee of at least three (3) registered voting community members who shall make final recommendations to the BT and EC.

This committee shall comprise of ICLR members like President, Board or ex-Board members or senior community members who are registered, have paid their annual membership dues in full and are eligible to vote, who are knowledgeable in Quran and Sunnah.

9.5 The Imam search committee shall seek applicants, make announcements, advertise, interview applicants, and check references and credentials of applicants and recommend prospective candidates to BT & EC.

9.6 The EC shall invite at least three (3) candidate(s) separately to interact with the community by hosting lectures and/or Jummah (Friday) khutbas. The General Body shall be informed and the candidate shall be introduced to the General Body at the lecture or khutba.

9.7 Within a week of the lecture or khutba from the last candidate(s), the EC and BT members shall meet and select the best candidate through mushawara (consensus) in a combined meeting. A decision regarding the best candidate shall be reached through agreement of simple majority of all the EC and BT members.

9.8 The Imam shall be punctual and lead the prayers on time.

9.9 The Imam shall be supervised by the EC and shall not interfere in the administration and operations of ICLR.

9.10 The EC shall provide the Imam, an alternate list of khateeb in case the Imam is absent due to an emergency.

9.11 The Imam shall be present and interface with the community at monthly meetings and any other events like fund raising and school graduations hosted by ICLR.

9.12 The Imam shall not attempt to create grouping and ethnicity among the community and shall remain neutral in all conflicts and matters pertaining to ICLR. The Imam may provide guidance to the BT and EC to arrive at a solution if so desired by the BT or EC.

Infraction of this article shall lead to immediate termination of his contract.

9.13 The Imam shall not improperly use ICLR platform (mimber) to further his own personal interest(s) or to use it against community member(s) with whom he may have personal disagreements. The Imam shall not disclose any personal matters of individuals who have sought counseling from him. Infraction of this article shall lead to immediate termination of his contract.

9.14 The Imam shall decide the times for Adhan and Iqamah after mushawara with the community members.

9.15 If someone other than the Imam wishes to give the khutba, it shall be the week following the request and the following criteria shall be fulfilled:

- EC members should be informed about the Khateeb.
- Topic of the khutba shall be announced a week before.
- Khutba shall start and finish on time.
- Khutba must also be in English.

9.16 In case of an issue affecting ICLR or its affiliates e.g. fund raising, the EC can inform the Imam, that an invited guest can give the khutba in his place on short notice.

9.17 If any employee of ICLR including the Imam violates or fails to execute any of his/her duties, he/she shall be given a warning letter, citing the lapses. If those are not rectified the EC or the relevant elected body like HASB reserves the right to put him/her on probation. If the situation is not resolved then a simple majority vote of the EC members or the relevant elected board (like HASB) members can recommend termination of services to the BT. The process of probation may be omitted for serious infractions and termination may be effective immediately.

9.18 ICLR may terminate the contract of an employee including the Imam, if a simple majority of the relevant elected body (EC, HASB) agrees and give their recommendation to the

BT members. A notice of two (2) weeks shall be given. The BT shall not have the right to go against the recommendations of the elected body.

9.19 ICLR reserves the right to terminate any employee's contract including the Imam's contract immediately if majority of BT and EC or HASB considers that his/her action(s) have put ICLR and its interests at risk.

9.20 Any employee including the Imam can terminate his/her contract with a thirty (30) day notice.

9.21 If anyone has a complaint against the Imam or any employee of ICLR, it must be put in writing and addressed to preferably the President or the Chairman of the HASB. The EC or the relevant elected body (HASB) shall invite the Imam or the employee to resolve the complaint before the EC or HASB recommends a solution.

9.22 No member of the BT, EC, and HASB shall make an offer or a contract with any employee of ICLR including the Imam, without mushawara (consensus) with the rest of the respective elected body members. If such an offer is made, it shall be null and void. In case of the Imam approval is required from BT. Similarly no member of any respective body alone shall decide on pay increases for any employee(s). Job description criteria shall be developed and pay increases shall only be given by consensus of the majority of the respective elected body members keeping the financial situation of ICLR and job performance in mind. In the case of the Imam, any change in contract shall also be approved by the BT. If there are no changes in the renewal of contract, then formal approval of BT is not required. *Any significant changes in the contract or increase/s in the HASB principal's salary shall be discussed with BT prior to the change(s) / salary increase being finalized. However a copy of the contract or any changes in the contract shall be given to the BT (See also Articles: 8.2.41; 9.7)

9.23 No employee including the Imam shall interfere in the meetings of the BT, EC and HASB. If a religious opinion is needed, the Imam shall be consulted. Consultation does not mean approval or permission.

9.24 The Imam does not have a voting right for any decisions made in ICLR.

9.25 The Imam or any employee of ICLR shall not be eligible to run for election for any office of ICLR.

9.26 All employees of ICLR including Imam shall strive to work to promote ICLR and its affiliates and maintain the Islamic code of etiquettes.

9.27 Contract of any employee including the Imam shall not extend a period of one (1) year, renewable for the same period by the EC. In case of any changes in the contract including but not limited to salaries, pay raises etc. for the Imam, approval from BT is required. For any other employees, the BT shall be kept informed. *Any significant changes in the contract or increase/s in the HASB principal's salary shall be discussed with BT prior to the change(s) /

salary increase being finalized

9.28 The Imam shall obtain a state marriage license to perform marriages according to Islamic Law and state and federal regulations. To issue a certificate of marriage from ICLR the bride and groom must register in the County Courthouse. No certificate shall be given if registration papers are not submitted.

9.29 If the Imam issues a certificate of marriage, a copy shall also be given to the Chairman of the Board of Trustees. A proper register and record will be kept by both the Imam and the BT Chairman.

9.30 Before and after negotiating any offer with other ICLR affiliate(s), the Imam and the relevant ICLR affiliate (like Huda Academy), the affiliate shall inform the EC & BT of the working relationship. The BT shall approve any financial arrangements between the affiliates.

9.31 The Imam shall teach a class in Weekend Islamic School. Details shall be communicated and provided by the Principal of Weekend Islamic School to the Chairman of HASB

9.32 No employee(s)/contractor(s) of ICLR or its affiliates including Imam shall meet or give interviews with the media alone representing ICLR or any of its affiliates. The President of the EC or a member designated by the President shall be present during the meeting with the media. In the case of HASB, Chairman of the HASB or a member designated by the Chairman shall be present during the meeting with the media. ICLR reserves the right to deny the views expressed if the majority of members of the respective elected body feel that the comments have put ICLR or its affiliates at risk. The employee(s) including the Imam may face disciplinary action, including termination, if the majority of elected members of the relevant body feel that the views expressed have put the ICLR or its affiliates at risk.

ARTICLE 10

Meetings and Quorum

10.1 All meetings shall start with the recitation from the Holy Quran and must end with Du'a. The meeting shall be conducted in accordance with the Islamic code of conduct, ethics and etiquettes. All members shall conduct themselves professionally; respect each other's opinion(s), right(s) and obligation(s).

10.2 In addition to the regular monthly meetings, the General Body may meet at least twice each year preferably on the 2nd Saturday of March and September to discuss special needs or issues of ICLR. No special speaker shall be invited during these meetings.

10.3 The President or Vice-President of EC shall be responsible for announcing the date, time and place of all relevant ICLR meeting(s) verbally or by mail, fax, e-mail etc. at least a week in advance. Similarly the HASB Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be responsible for calling their respective meetings. Any HASB member may request the HASB Chairman to call a meeting in case a need arises.

10.4 Non-Registered members can attend these meeting only as observers by invitation and/or permission of President of EC.

10.5 The President of the EC is authorized to call for a special general body meeting if (a) requested in writing by 20% of registered ICLR members, or (b) requested in writing by a majority of BT, EC and HASB members.

10.6 This shall be separate from the “vote-of-no-confidence” or “petition” meeting as delineated in ARTICLE 8.1.6

10.7 The date, time and place for this meeting shall be announced by the President of the EC and put on the ICLR notice board or web page.

10.8 Fifty One percent (51%) of ICLR members, who are registered, have paid their annual membership dues in full and are eligible to vote in ICLR election shall constitute a quorum for the General Body meeting.

10.9 If a quorum is not present, then the meeting shall be adjourned and NO decision shall be made that affects ICLR or its affiliates.

10.10 Any meeting adjourned because of lack of quorum must be reconvened within thirty (30) days. However if a quorum is still not present, then the issue(s) shall be resolved and a decision reached by mushawara (consensus) between majority of the members of the BT and EC or HASB, if Huda Academy is involved.

10.11 All regularly scheduled meetings of the BT, EC and HASB are closed meetings unless otherwise specified. There shall be no interference from general body member(s). The presence of simple majority of elected members from the BT, EC or HASB shall constitute a quorum for the respective elected body. Any decisions made when quorum is present are binding and shall reflect in the minutes.

10.12 Only member(s) who are registered, have paid their annual membership dues and are eligible to vote have the right to attend a meeting if invited. If a member of BT, EC or HASB invites general body member(s), then the rest of the BT, EC or HASB members shall be informed prior to the meeting and the reason(s) for the person being invited. The BT, EC or HASB shall conduct mushawara (consensus) and decide to allow the person to attend the meeting as an observer.

10.13 The invited member(s) shall not interfere in the proceedings of the meeting and do not have the right to vote during the meeting.

10.14 The approved minutes of all meetings including minutes of committees, sub-committees, of BT, EC and HASB shall be posted within a reasonable amount of time, preferably before the next scheduled meeting on the respective bulletin board to keep the community informed, as long as the minutes do not contain confidential information.

10.15 To keep the community informed, during each monthly meeting and General Body meetings, the agenda shall contain a minimum of the following:

- Summary Treasurer's Report of ICLR, Huda Academy and Sunday School
- EC and HASB Report
- Questions and Answers

ARTICLE 11

Committees and Sub-Committees of ICLR

11.1 No committee, sub-committee of ICLR affiliates (Masjid, The Huda Academy School) shall have the authority to take any action outside the scope of authority delegated to it by the BT, EC or HASB.

11.2 Each committee, sub-committee shall be comprised of a minimum of three (3) ICLR members who are registered, have paid their annual membership dues in full and are eligible to vote in ICLR elections.

11.3 The designated members of these committees or sub-committees shall communicate, inform, educate, and update the respective elected body of their activities e.g. new construction efforts of school, issues, challenges of school, Masjid etc.

11.4 If there are any criteria for selection or recruitment of members for these committee(s) or sub-committee(s), it shall be announced during the regular monthly meeting.

11.5 The terms of these sub-committees shall coincide with the terms of the respective elected body (EC, BT or HASB). No one shall arbitrarily decide membership or terms of these members.

11.6 Before a new member is added to the committee or sub-committee, the new member shall be introduced to the respective elected body for approval. After approval the elected body shall inform the member of his/her acceptance in the committee or sub-committee in writing.

11.7 All elected members of ICLR and members of the committees and sub-committees shall read and sign that they have understood the constitution of ICLR and will abide by it. Failure to do so may terminate their eligibility to serve in the respective body of the ICLR.

ARTICLE 12

Amendments

12.1 This constitution may be amended if concurred by 51% of the voting General Body members who are registered, have paid their annual membership dues in full and are eligible to vote in ICLR's elections.

12.2 The proposed amendment(s) shall be given in writing to the President of the EC or Chairman of HASB if affecting The Huda Academy, signed by (1) at least twenty percent (20%) of the registered ICLR members /parent body or (2) by the majority of the respective elected body members.

12.3 The amendment(s) shall be reviewed by all members of the EC or the HASB if affecting The Huda Academy. They may be approved or rejected after mushawara (consensus) of the majority of the members of the relevant elected body. If the majority of the elected members of the respective elected body approve the amendments then they shall be forwarded to the BT.

12.4 After review of the proposed amendments, BT shall disseminate the proposed amendments to voting members of the general body via appropriate means, i.e. via mail, email, ICLR website or community center bulletin board for a review period of 30 days.

12.5 The BT shall facilitate a voting day (either Friday or during the monthly meeting), for voting members to vote in favor or against the proposed amendment/s. Each amendment shall be voted upon separately.

12.6 The result of amendments from the voting members (51% in favor) shall be posted within a week.

12.7 The BT after mushawara (consensus) amongst them shall have right to approve or reject the amendment by simple majority of their members.

12.8 If the majority of the BT members agree with the amendment(s), the General Body shall then vote on the amendment(s) during the regularly scheduled monthly meeting.

12.9 The result of the vote for the amendment(s) shall be posted within a week. Only those votes of members, who have registered with ICLR, have paid their annual membership dues in full for the previous year and are up to date for the current year's membership dues will be counted.

12.10 If Quorum (51%) is not present then the ARTICLE 10.9 - 10.10 shall be followed.

12.11 The Secretary of the EC, and person designated by the Chairman of the BT or

HASB shall be responsible for the minutes of these meeting which shall also be posted on the ICLR bulletin Board within a reasonable number of days of conducting the meeting, preferably before the next regularly scheduled meeting.

12.12 With the approval from BT, by-laws may be made by the EC or HASB without changing the intent of any article(s) in this constitution and only if a majority of the members of the respective elected body agrees.
